FOR THE FANS.

Chester defeated Orangeburg yesterday afternoon in a slow game, in which errors, hitting and Blanton's catch behind third were the principal features. A double-header was scheduled, but rain permitted only one game and that had to be called in the eighth inning.

Rock Hill-Sumter game postponed on account of rain.

ORANGEBURG WINS TWO MORE

Orangeburg, July 10.—Orangeburg made it three straight from Chester, taking both games in a double-header. The first game was featureless and dragged over two hours. The second was likewise slow and only seven innings could be played. In the sixth a hit, a batter hit, and a base on balls filled the bases, after which a clean single and two errors netted the locals four runs. Hester's pitching in the second was great. Biel pitched both games for Chester and was at his best during the first five innings of the second. First game. R H E
